DETAILED ACTION

This is a response to the amendment filed 1/4/2006. Claims 1-13 and 15-16 are pending and are under examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-13 and 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Papaliolios (USP 6,236,245).

Figure 5 shows a power efficiency control circuit comprising a plurality of multiplexers (530, 570) having a common input node (505), an upper output node (output of MUX 530) and a lower output node (output of MUX 570), wherein the plurality of MUXs are configured to generate output signals at UOP and LOP in response to only an input signal (505) at the common input node such that during an input signal transition at the input node, a control electrode for the UOP and the LOP are driven toward opposite voltage supplies so that the UOP and the LOP are never on simultaneously (during the transition of the input signal 505, the output signals of the multiplexers 530 and 570 are on opposite level (abstract) thus never on simultaneously and responsive only to the input signal 505 which performs the selecting function of the multiplexers) as called for in claims 1-2, 7, 10, 11 and 13.

Regarding claims 3 and 8, the delay elements 420, 460 and multiplexers 430 and 3470 forms a predriver (column 2, lines 66-67).

Regarding claims 4 and 15-16, the delay elements 420, 460 and multiplexers 430 and 3470 forms a predriver of CMOS technology.

Regarding claims 5 and 9, figure 5 shows an output driver comprising a PMOS and a NMOS transistor.

Regarding claims 6 and 12, the PMOS transistor of the output driver 599 is off first, prior to the NMOS transistor being on during the transition of the input signal 505.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
